My Annt. BV U. W. HULMES.

My want! my dear, unmarried aunt! Long years have o'er her flown; Vot still she arrains the aching clasp, That hands her virgin zone; I know it harts her-though she looks As cheerful as she can: Her want is broader than her life, For life is but a span.

My aunt-my poor deluded aunt! Her hair is almost gray, Why will she train that winter curl Ju such a spring-like way? How can she lay ber glasses down, And say she reads as well, When through a double convex lens, She just makes out to spell. Her father-Grand Papa! forgive
